Tri Delt President
Addresses Club on D.C. Convention

Delta Delta Delta alumnae met Tuesday for dessert and a meeting at the home of Mrs. Lawrence C. Daley, 1872 Big Tree Road, Walled Lake.

"The Sorority Situation Today" was discussed by the alumnae president, Mrs. John E. Lane, who reviewed a national survey of sororities presented at the June Delta Delta Delta Centennial Convention in Washington, D.C., which Mrs. Lane attended.

A demonstration on the decorative uses of candles was presented by Mrs. Raymond Reid.

Austria to Be Home Of Bridal Couple

Robert Holmes gave his sister, Priscilla Ann, in marriage Friday to Guido Christian Friedl at a ceremony held Friday at 7 p.m. at the First Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John W. Holmes of 665 Pleasant, Birmingham. The bridal gown was floor-length peau de soie cut in a princess style with long sleeves and a chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil was held by a pearlized cluster of flowers. White glamillias were her choice for flowers.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Fritz Friedl of Vienna, Austria.

ATTENDING the couple for the double ring ceremony were the bride's sister, Mrs. Richard Buxton of Ann Arbor and Nancy Collins and Barbara Luscombe, both of Birmingham.

Cascades of chrysanthemums and glamilias complimented the attendants' street-length gowns of pink silk shantung. On their heads they each wore a bow with a cloud veil.

Rainer Friedl of Vienna was his brother's best man and usher were the bride's brother, John D., and Dr. Richard Buxton of Ann Arbor.

MRS. G. C. FRIEDL

April Irene Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holmes, was the flower girl. She wore a deep pink satin sheath with matching colored feather pill box hat.

Following a reception at Forest Lake Country Club, the couple left for a three week honeymoon to France and Germany enroute to Vienna where they will make their home for two years while going to school.

Needlework Guild Goes Into Action

A luncheon meeting of the board of directors of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Branch, Needlework Guild of America, was held recently at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

President Mrs. John S. Judd welcomed new-board members, Mrs. George W. Davis, Mrs.
James H. Herbst and Mrs. George R. Squibb, and plans were made for the annual fall Ingathering Oct. 13.

This morning a coffee will be given at the home of Mrs. Wright Tisdale on W. Long Lake for action presidents and directors.

The Needlework Guild invites all women in the area to join the organization. Mrs. William Morrison is membership chairman.

Fall Wedding

November 21 has been set as the wedding date for Susan Winifred Poole and Donald Michael Byelich. Mr. and Mrs. James H. Poole of 2591 Covington Place, Birmingham, have announced the engagement of their daughter. Mr. Byelich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Byelich of DeWitt, Mich.

Mrs. Preston Weir Honored by AAUW

Mrs. Preston R. Weir has been honored by Birmingham Branch of American Association of University Women with a full fellowship sent in her name to AAUW Educational Foundation.

This $3000 Augusta Watson Weir fellowship will underwrite a year of graduate study in the United States for a woman from a foreign country.

Mrs. Weir is past president of Birmingham AAUW, and is serving now as Michigan division secretary. She has been honored for her long devotion to AAUW with the only full fellowship sent by a Michigan branch this year.

A successful booksale last year has enabled the branch also to send an additional $1000 stipend as a memorial to the late Elizabeth Buchanan Theobald (Mrs. Carl J.) to allow an American woman scholar to continue her graduate studies.

A third grant of $1000 was added to an accruing endowment fund named for Dr. Ethel M. Barbour.

The 37th annual AAUW book-sale is in progress this week in Demery's Birmingham Room.
