Young Man Go West to See Sights

By ELEANOR NELSEN

"Go West, Young Man" may be an old adage but it still holds a great deal of interest for our young people.

Tom Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Franklin of Westbourne Drive made plans with two of his Theta Chi fraternity brothers from Michigan State University to find out for themselves what the West is like.

Tom and Lou Arend from East

Lansing left here the end of August to motor to the West Coast with a graduate student who had accepted a teaching job in California.

They made plans to visit Las Vegas, the numerous canyons, the redwood forests and locations about which history has been written. When they arrived in Los Angeles they were greeted by Wayne Corey of La Grange, Ill. who had been working there during the summer vacation.

On their return trip they made it a point to stop at spots they had missed on the trip westward.

AUGUST 19 found Mr. and Mrs. Frank Starr of Westbourne Drive motorizing eastward with their son John and a Seaholm classmate, Jim Bishop.

First on their agenda was a few days at the New York World's Fair and then on to Newport, Rhode Island where they watched the USS Massey dock after a Mediterranean cruise. Aboard was another son, Robert, who was returning home for a 10-day leave.

Robert accompanied them back to Birmingham so that he might spend some time at home.

A reminder of the Meadow Lake School Fair! It will be held on Saturday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the school grounds. In the event of inclement weather a quick switch will put the game booths, refreshments and bake sale indoors.

ANOTHER FAMILY that enjoyed vacationing the last two weeks of August were the James Hostwicks of Old Mill Road.

Motoring through the New England States with four of their youngsters, Dave, Val and the twins, Jan and Judy, proved to be very relaxing. They shied away from the freeways and combed the backroads for atmosphere and quaintness.

Three days were spent at Rockport, Mass., which is in the Gloucester area. Mr. and Mrs. Hostwick had spent some time there about 20 years ago and have always thought about returning.

They enjoyed the countryside every bit as much as they did two decades ago. Their children fell in love with the ocean. While in the East they visited Hanover, N. H., to take a close look at Dartmouth where their son is considering going to school.

Plymouth Rock was a must on their list and they also took a look at Cape Cod and Lake Placid. Three days were spent in Philadelphia where they visited with Mr. Hostwick's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McCormick who are former Detroiters.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Hostwick are flying to New York on a combination business and pleasure trip.

MR. AND MRS. B. L. Franklin were the house guests of the Jack Kings of Bay Village, O., the last week end of August.

The Kings are former residents of this area. The Gordon Lovelands, also former residents but now of Grand Rapids, had planned to join them for the week end because when they all lived in the Westchester area they had been known as the "friendly three-some."

Golfing was one of the pleasures enjoyed during the week end.

Mrs. Franklin and her sister Gladys Edgar of Flint flew to Great Falls, Mont., earlier this summer for a 10-day visit with a son, Jack Harrison, and his wife.

To wind up the summer, a visit was made to Douglas Lake and the home of the Walter Kropfolds of Flint.

The Lyall Smiths of Parkstone Drive entertained Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Maher of Evanston, Ill., and their two daughters, Adrienne and Chris, as house guests for a two-week visit the end of August.

Mrs. Maher is a sister of Mrs. Smith. During their stay here the two families spent some time at Charlevoix.

MR. AND MRS. Vincent Johnson of Halyard, chairmen of the Operation Friendship parties held in the Meadow Lake area, climaxed the festivities when they held a potluck supper in their home on Saturday for a number of foreign students attending the University of Michigan.

In previous years the finale party was held on the island in the Meadow Lake area but due to the late date in the month it was held indoors. Attending were students from India, Venezuela, Australia and China.

Most of the students are studying engineering in one form or another although two of them are studying forestry.

True couples, all University of Michigan alumni, were Mr. and Mrs. George McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas LeVick, Mr. and Mrs. James Steele and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snydam. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Broadwell, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wagstaff and the Johnsons.

A CASUAL BRUNCH of the Westchester Women's Club was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Bothe, Jr., of Bradford Drive West on Tuesday.

It was termed "Rise and Shine Members" and justly so because it began at 9:30 a.m. Reservations were handled by Mrs. Frank Smith and Mrs. Eugene Mueller.

The Westchester Women's Bowling League rolled their first balls of the season on Sept. 14 at Birmingham Bowl. Prior to their starting date the women held a general meeting at the home of Mrs. Dale Grovert of Westbourne Drive on Aug. 27.

The couples' bowling will start in October and meet the second Saturday of each month at 7:30 p.m.

COUPLES interested are being asked to contact Mrs. Robert Hebert, 3676 Middlebury Lane.

The Social Service group of the Westchester area will continue to give regular aid to the Pontiac Hospital on the fourth Wednesday of each month for the inmates it receives.

This is a very rewarding project. Further information may be had by contacting Mrs. Frank Starr, 230 Westbourne Drive.

A Social Service benefit bridge will be held on Nov. 4 at the Y.M.C.A. Reservations can be made through Mrs. Ben Franklin, 205 Westbourne Drive.

Jewish Women Set Afternoon Discussion

On Wednesday a group of Jewish women will attend a meeting sponsored by the Women's Division of the Detroit Jewish Welfare Federation.

The purpose of the meeting, invitations for which have been sent to a select group, will be to develop a more aware and enlightened Jewish community.

Mrs. David Howard will be the hostess at 1 p.m. at her home 27135 Crestwood Drive in Franklin.

SPEAKERS FOR the meeting will be Samuel Lerner of the Jewish Family and Children's Service; Albert Elazar, United Hebrew Schools and Averb Cohn, Jewish Community Council.

Mrs. Daniel E. Cohn and Mrs. Robert H. Berman are co-chairmen. Others on the committee are Mrs. Morris H. Brown, Mrs. Richard Hamburger, Mrs. Richard Lurie, Mrs. Kenneth J. Robinson, Mrs. Bernard Rubin, Mrs. Julian H. Scott and Mrs. Paul Zuckerman.

Plan Study Abroad

Michael J. Houlihan, 384 Lake Park, Birmingham, and 25 other Shimer College students will establish a "one year branch" of Shimer in London starting early in October.

Shimer College, a four-year co-educational liberal arts college in Mount Carroll, Ill., offers the overseas program to give students a new cultural dimension.

In New York

Leopold H. Landsberg, CLU, of Cambourne, Birmingham, has qualified for the Leaders Round Table Conference of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. scheduled this week at Lake George, Sagamore, Bolton Landing, N.Y. He is an associate of the Charles E. Stumb Agency in Detroit.
