BEHIND the STORE FRONTS

With ANGUS McKELLAR
Kay Baum's expansion program has created two new promotions at the firm's Birmingham store. Jim Hockett has been named manager, and Louise Humphries to the post of assistant manager. Both are well known to Birmingham shoppers.

Most all homekeepers are design and interior decorating conscious and have probably heard of Kay Lambeth at some time or another. These same people will be interested to know that they have an opportunity to talk personally with Kay this Thursday and Friday at Edward S. Pierson Interiors, 19556 Grand River, between Outer Drive and Evergreen.

Erwin Lambeth, of Thomaston, N. C., and is well known in the design and manufacturing of fine furniture.

SAM SPIRE, of Sfire's Market, 180 E. Maple, reflected the other day about his 34 years in Birmingham and the changes in the town. The 34 years add up to 1,708 weeks, sometime this fall, which is another way of saying that a Sfire's Market advertisement has appeared in every issue of The Birmingham Eccentric in every one of those weeks. Quite a record.

Remodeling is well under way at Erb-Restrick's on 13th Rd. The addition will double the present store's area and will provide additional display and retail space. Operational and customer pick-up will be facilitated, according to manager Clint Siewick. When completed, the outward appearance of the building will be colonial. New offices are also being installed in the mill facility, and will be more conveniently located for customers. The remodeling project is part of Erb-Restrick's general reorganization and expansion program.

American Metal Names Area Man

American Metal Products Co. has announced the appointment of Charles J. DeLoren as sales manager-automotive of the Automotive Division. In his new responsibility he will report to H. G. Reichardt, vice president-sales.

DeLoren, 2678 Warwick Court, Beverly Hills, comes to American Metal Products from the Buick Co., where he was sales manager of the General Motors account. His broad experience in the automotive field includes Merchandising Manager for Arvin Industries; several years in product planning and marketing with the Ford Division; and several years with Kaiser Aluminum in business development.

Southfield Firm Tells of General Reorganization Plan

Pyles Industries, Inc., a subsidiary of the Kent-Moore Organization, has announced a general reorganization of its engineering department and facilities. Pyles Southfield, manufacturer of motor, mixing and dispensing equipment for thermosetting plastic resins, is making the changes to keep pace with the demands of a rapidly advancing technology. Under this arrangement, D. E. Trumbull, former chief product engineer, will head a new Research and Development Engineering section. Prior to becoming chief product engineer, Trumbull was production manager at Pyles.
